In regards to testing:

In addition to the standard documentation requirements criteria (i.e. recipient name, who administered the test, date(s) of testing, start and end times etc. as outlined in the provider billing manual), you MUST also document in the note, medical record or testing log info sheet the name of the test, vendor/supplier and retain proof of purchase. Furthermore, you will need to follow whatever guidelines or directives set forth by the supplier for remote administration and/or COVID-19 standards.

You may use any company of your choice that offers telemedicine testing, for self-reporting test types (i.e. BASC-3, MACI, BRIEF, Gilliam Autism Rating Scales, MCMI-III). The following companies are listed below for your convenience:
